

for the reception of subscriptions to its capital stock at such time and under such conditions as the board of directors may decide.

CHAP. 33.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the corporation hereby formed shall have power and it is hereby authorized to hold a saengerfest, or festival of song and music, and an exposition, or display of arts, industries, manufactures, and the products of mine and sea, in the city of Baltimore, for a period not exceeding one month during the year 1903; to fix admission fees and dispose of privileges of every kind and character in connection therewith; to establish and maintain hotels and restaurants, and to erect and conduct booths and stands for sale of goods, liquors and refreshments of all kinds; to provide for attractions, amusements, entertainments and diversions which the board of directors may deem proper; to have the right to erect temporary statues, arches, fountains and gateways, booths and stands in any public streets, avenue, squares, place or park, or municipal buildings in the city of Baltimore, during said period and to provide for the temporary illumination and decorating of such streets, avenues, squares and parks and municipal buildings in said city; to allot space for exhibits and prepare a classification thereof, determine the plan and scope of the festival, exhibition, or trades display; to appoint judges and examiners, and award prizes and premiums, if any.

Authority
given to hold saengerfest,
etc.

SEC. 5. Be it enacted, That for the purpose of preserving order during said festival period, the Board of Police Commissioners of Baltimore city, upon application of the association, may appoint such number of policemen as they may deem fit, and shall issue to each of said persons a commission for such period as they may deem proper, to be recorded in the office of the secretary of said board, and revocable at the pleasure of the board.

Preserve order.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That every such policeman before entering upon the duties of his office shall take and subscribe before the secretary of the Board of Police Commissioners the oath affirmation prescribed by the sixth section of the first article of the constitution, to be recorded in said office.

Oath to be taken.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That every policeman who has been thus qualified shall be a conservator of the peace, possessing all the common law and statutory police powers and authority of constable, policeman and other police officers.

Conservator of the peace.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the compensation of every such officer shall be paid by the said association, and he shall not be entitled to any public compensation.

Compensation.